

Get more from Motionhouse

If you enjoy what we do, please support us by becoming a member of Motionhouse.

As a charity, we rely on a range of supporters to enable us to make the extraordinary work that our audiences enjoy. Your support really does make a difference. We would love you to join us on our journey in bringing our exciting plans to life. With your donation, you can help us to:

- Create thrilling new productions and tour them to audiences around the world
- Engage with young people and inspire a lifelong love of dance through our education programme
- Reach new audiences who may not otherwise be able to enjoy our work, through our outdoor repertoire and flexible touring model
- Enable us to continue our inspiring education work with young people

With your support, we can make your Motionhouse experience even better. Become a member and enjoy:

- Being the first to hear our news and invitations to exclusive backstage events
- Getting to know our dancers and feeling part of the company
- Knowing that you play a vital part in the future of Motionhouse
- Creating unforgettable experiences and lifelong memories

You can support us from just £15 per year, and split your contribution into monthly instalments if you prefer.

About Motionhouse

Founded in 1988 by Louise Richards and Kevin Finnan MBE, Motionhouse's trailblazing journey has been filled with as many convention-defying twists and turns as its internationally renowned productions.

Receiving rave responses from audiences across the globe, Motionhouse shows fuse passionate physicality, powerful narrative, incredible digital imagery and emotive sound scores to surprise, delight and entertain.

A wide-ranging education and participatory programme runs parallel to Motionhouse's performance work and includes classes, workshops in schools and theatres, and post-show discussions with audiences.
